Here's some information about the activities your student did with us. Links at the bottom will help you explore further. Thanks!

What did we do?

Today we learned more about acids and bases!

How did we do it?

We continued learning about acids and bases today! We explored how acid/base chemical reactions can be used to clean things, and what happened to our vinegar-soaked eggs from last week. We also wrote secret messages using lemon juice!

Where can we find out more?
